

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to require their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation!

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, our democratic society is diminished.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Please do your job, the one that my tax dollars help pay for and let Sinclair know that their license is on the line. Otherwise this will be just the beginning of an all out advertising war by both major parties and the corporations they are attached to. Thank you.
